

Worksheet 1/7 on Subject Verb Agreement

Mini Lesson (See also Charts and Links)

Definition When we use a plural noun we must also use a plural verb. When we write a plural noun, we usually add s, es or ies. When we write the plural verb, we usually take off the s.

Example We go to the library.
"We" is a plural subject and "go" is a plural verb. Do not write "We goes to the library." Usually we drop the "s" on the verb.

Directions Circle the sentence that makes the most sense to you.
