

Worksheet 4/7 on Subject Verb Agreement

Mini Lesson

Definition Some verbs tell us what someone or something is or are.

Example There are golf courses all over Scotland.
(Scotland has golf courses.)

Directions Write the verb on the line that best fits in the sentence. Pick from the box.
The first one has been done for you.

1) There are many sports played in Scotland, one of which is the golf.

.....

2) Golf courses ___ often found around the Scottish coast..

.....

3) They ___ normally 18 holes on a golf course although sometimes just nine.

.....

4) Golf courses usually have clubs and members associated with them and this ___ how most people get access to them..

.....

5) The people who maintain and look after them ___ often referred to as greenkeepers.

.....

6) Cheating at golf ___ considered one of the worst things a player can do.

.....

7) Some people think that a golf ___ an elitist past-time but this is becoming less true.

.....

8) Golf courses that are build next to the sea ___ most often called Links courses as they are built on land that "links" the sea to the land.

.....

9) Slow play ___ often the subject of golfers' complaints and some say it ___ killing the game.

.....

10) Some golf clubs in Scotland did not not allow women to become members but most ___ now allowing women to join.

.....

Present Tense Subject Verb Agreement

	Singular Noun and Verb	Plural Noun and Verb
	I am	We are
The Verb	You are	You are
To Be	He is	They are
	It is
	She is

Worksheet 4/7 on Subject Verb Agreement

Mini Lesson

Definition Some verbs tell us what someone or something is or are.

Example There are golf courses all over Scotland.
(Scotland has golf courses.)

Directions Write the verb on the line that best fits in the sentence. Pick from the box.
The first one has been done for you.

1) There are many sports played in Scotland, one of which is the golf.

2) Golf courses are often found around the Scottish coast..

3) They are normally 18 holes on a golf course although sometimes just nine.

4) Golf courses usually have clubs and members associated with them and this is how most people get access to them..

5) The people who maintain and look after them are often referred to as greenkeepers.

6) Cheating at golf is considered one of the worst things a player can do.

7) Some people think that a golf is an elitist past-time but this is becoming less true.

8) Golf courses that are build next to the sea are most often called Links courses as they are built on land that "links" the sea to the land.

9) Slow play is often the subject of golfers' complaints and some say it is killing the game.

10) Some golf clubs in Scotland did not not allow women to become members but most are now allowing women to join.

Present Tense Subject Verb Agreement

	Singular Noun and Verb	Plural Noun and Verb
	I am	We are
The Verb	You are	You are
To Be	He is	They are
	It is
	She is	